Announcement

Continuing Connected Transactions

Aircraft Maintenance

Independent Financial Adviser: ING Bank N.V.

HAECO and Cathay Pacific have entered into the Framework Agreement on 21st May 2007 for HAECO Group to provide the Services to Cathay Pacific Group for maintenance of Cathay Pacific Group's aircraft for a term of 10 years ending on 31st December 2016. As Cathay Pacific is a connected person of HAECO, the transactions contemplated under the Framework Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions for HAECO under Rule 14A.14 of the Listing Rules and are subject to the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' requirements under Rule 14A.35.

A circular containing the particulars of the Framework Agreement, a letter from the Independent Board Committee, a letter from the Independent Financial Adviser and a notice to convene the EGM will be despatched to the shareholders of the Company as soon as practicable.

Framework Agreement dated 21st May 2007

article: (1) HAECO
(2) Cathay Pacific

Particulars
In respect of the Framework Agreement, HAECO Group provides the Services to Cathay Pacific Group for maintenance of Cathay Pacific Group's aircraft. The Framework Agreement is for a term of 10 years ending on 31st December 2016. The Framework Agreement is required in order for HAECO Group to maintain necessary facilities, components and spare parts for providing the services to Cathay Pacific Group cost-effectively. Since the term of Framework Agreement is for 10 years, ING Bank N.V. has been appointed as Independent Financial Adviser to advise the Company and its shareholders on the terms of the Framework Agreement and the consequences thereof. A circular containing the particulars of the Framework Agreement, a letter from the Independent Financial Adviser and a notice to convene the EGM will be despatched to shareholders. The Framework Agreement incorporates the relevant Agreements between Cathay Pacific Group and HAECO Group and provides for a framework under which a Relevant Agreement can be entered, amended, replaced or terminated by the parties for the purpose of renewing or replacing a Relevant Agreement between Cathay Pacific Group and HAECO Group for a term of successive terms expiring on or before 31st December 2016.

The terms of the Framework Agreement are consistent with normal business practices. A party may terminate the Framework Agreement with immediate effect by notice to the other party in the event of material breach by that other party. In the event of termination of the Framework Agreement by either party, all obligations of the parties under the Framework Agreement, shall forthwith cease, but any rights, liabilities or remedies arising prior to such termination shall not be affected.

The terms of the Framework Agreement, including the charges for the Services determined by reference to the respective types of aircraft, parts and components and technical standards required, have been agreed at after negotiations on an arm's length in normal commercial terms.

Payment shall be made in cash by Cathay Pacific Group to HAECO Group within 30 days upon receipt of the invoice.

The Services

The Services are provided under the following Relevant Agreements.

1. Total Care Package Contract dated 9th September 2004 between HAECO and AIIK, pursuant to which HAECO and AIIK published announcements dated 13th September 2004, 16th February 2005 and 14th February 2007.

2. Line Maintenance Contract dated 9th September 2004 between HAECO and AIIK, pursuant to which HAECO published announcements dated 13th September 2004, 16th February 2005 and 14th February 2007.

3. HAECO Service Agreement dated 10th November 2005 between Cathay Pacific and HAECO published announcements dated 10th November 2005 and despatched circulars to shareholders dated 22nd November 2005.

4. TAECO Service Agreement dated 10th November 2005 between Cathay Pacific and TAECO, pursuant to which Cathay Pacific and HAECO published announcements dated 10th November 2005 and despatched circulars to shareholders dated 22nd November 2005.

5. TAECO Line Maintenance Agreement dated 10th November 2005 between Cathay Pacific and TAECO, pursuant to which Cathay Pacific and HAECO published announcements dated 10th November 2005 and despatched circulars to shareholders dated 22nd November 2005.

6. Any further agreements entered into between Cathay Pacific Group and HAECO Group in respect of maintenance of aircraft, parts or components from time to time.

The Services include, but not limited to, the following:

(1) the provision by HAECO to AIIK of a total care package for AIIK's fleet, including acquisition of an inventory of rotatable and repairable spare parts held by AIIK and periodic inspection and maintenance of the aircraft in the custody of AIIK;

(2) the provision by HAECO of line maintenance services for AIIK's fleet at HKIA, including routine maintenance check, non-routine maintenance, actions to address inbound technical issues, ad-hoc maintenance support, ramp services, material supplies, tooling supplies, aircraft release and certification, and aircraft on ground support;

(3) the provision by HAECO to Cathay Pacific Group of LM Services for aircraft, leasing HKIA; BM Services at HKIA; comprehensive stores and logistics support services comprising receiving / inspection, warehousing, distribution, import / export services, materials supply, CAO Services, and Engineering Services, and other services;

(4) the provision by HAECO to Cathay Pacific Group of LM Services for aircraft, leasing Xiamen; Engineering Services; LM Services for aircraft, leasing Xiamen and such other airports as Cathay Pacific Group and TAECO shall from time to time agree.

The annual caps

The annual caps for the Transactions have been determined by reference to the actual amounts of the Services in the four years ended 31st December 2006 set out below, the forecast payments for the Services to be provided by Cathay Pacific Group in the 10 years ending 31st December 2016 and the present value of Cathay Pacific Group's obligations to the Company under the Framework Agreement, taking into account that 30 aircraft are under firm orders for delivery from 2007 to 2010. In addition, a cushion of 30% has been added to provide flexibility for possible changes in the level of Services associated with growth in Cathay Pacific Group's undelivered maintenance backlog and other Cathay Pacific Group. The Directors estimate that the amounts payable for the Services in respect of aircraft maintenance for the 10 years ending 31st December 2016 will not exceed the annual caps set out below, which constitutes and replaces the annual caps previously set for the transactions.

	2003	2004	2005	2006
HK$ million	Actual	Actual	Actual	Actual
Services	1,247	1,345	1,478	1,627
	2007	2008	2009	2010

Services	7,075

Reasons for, and benefits of, the Transactions

The Transactions form part of the normal commercial activities of HAECO Group in the ordinary course of their businesses and it is expected that they will make substantial contribution to HAECO Group's revenue and profitability. In 2006, sales to Cathay Pacific accounted for 41% of the turnover of HAECO Group.

Connection between the parties

Cathay Pacific holds 27.5% of the issued share capital of HAECO and its directors 42 as a substantial shareholder and a connected person of HAECO under the Listing Rules.

Compliance with Listing Rules

As the highest of the relevant percentage notice as defined under Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules (or 10% where the relevant percentage is less than 10%) is 5%, the Company has to comply with the announcement, reporting and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.35 of the Listing Rules.

The Independent Board Committee has been constituted to advise the Independent Shareholders on the relevant aspects of the Framework Agreement. It consists of 5 members, all of whom are independent non-executive Directors appointed by the shareholders for the period of the Framework Agreement, as well as the Independent Financial Adviser and the Independent Shareholders on the Framework Agreement, as term and the Transactions including the annual caps.

The Company will convene an EGM to consider and, if thought fit, to approve the Framework Agreement, as term and the Transactions including the annual caps. Voting will be by poll and Cathay Pacific and its substantial shareholder Swei and its associates will be entitled to vote.

A circular containing the particulars of the Framework Agreement, a letter from the Independent Financial Adviser and a notice to convene the EGM will be despatched to shareholders as soon as practicable.

The Company will comply with the continuing obligations under Rules 14A.37-14A.39 of the Listing Rules and will re-comply with the relevant Listing Rules after 31st December 2016 if the annual caps are exceeded or when there is a material change to the terms of the Framework Agreement.

Opinion of the Directors

The Directors believe that the independent non-executive Directors whose views will be set out in the circular to be despatched to the shareholders together with the advice of the Independent Financial Adviser consider that the terms of the Framework Agreement are fair, reasonable and acceptable in the context of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and have been negotiated on an arm's length basis in the usual and ordinary course of business, on normal commercial terms and on terms no more favourable to Cathay Pacific than those which the Company would offer to parties which are not connected persons as defined under the Listing Rules of the Company.
